TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 PER YEAR.

C. E. SIDLINGER,
The Druggist
Prescriptions a Specialty.
North Main street Hutchinson

The People's Ticket.

For Judge 9th Judicial District, HON. WM. WHITECLAW, of Hutchinson.

For Sheriff,
B. EISMINGER,
of Salt Creek township.

For Register of Deeds,
FAY SMITH,
Hutchinson.

For County Clerk,
JOHN W. TURKLE,
Valley township.

For Treasurer,
J. H. FOUNTAIN,
Castleton township.

For Surveyor,
W. H. DUNKIN,
Hutchinson.

For Coroner,
DR. HUTTON,
Haven.

For Commissioner, 3rd District,
M. G. HACKLER,
Hayes township.

Put an X in front of Fay Smith.

Put an X in front of W. M. Whiteclaw.

DR. HUTTON, for coroner. He's all right, too.

JOHN SHERMAN is the logical republican nominee for president;

W. H. DUNCAN is the only surveyor on the ticket, don't forget this.

HONEST JIM FOUNTAIN'S record is clear. He is the man for county treasurer.

JOHN TURKLE for county clerk is all right. Place an X before his name.

In voting for a candidate for Sheriff mark your ballot thus X B. Eism-inger.

If the people want to break up the old court house ring, the first place to strike is in the election of a majority of the board of county commissioners, M. G. Hackler is pledged to reduce the expenses of the county. If the people want it done let them vote for him.
If they are satisfied with maintaining a gang of hangers on let them vote for Rutledge. He will see they have a place.

WHY HE WENT.

John Q. Patten, on last Monday, after feeding at the public crib for almost two years went around to the Grand Central hotel and paid for his dinner. Some of the boys think he went to see if Fred Palmer was eating regularly, that gentleman having been paid four dollars from the contingent fund last Saturday, for that purpose; and it was hinted that Fred was borrowing crackers and using the money for liquid purposes; the contraband stock at the jail having been exhausted.
Be that as it may, John Q. Patten's name was written on the register of the above named hotel, on last Monday.

IT TAKES NERVE.

An examination of the record of Judge Martin will show that he has not favored corporations or individuals. He has no favorites. On the bench he does not allow his sympathies to unduly influence him, but in dealing with the unfortunate who have come before him he has shown that he can treat them with great kindness and mercy.—News.

We publish the above to show what nerve it takes to be a republican newspaper editor. If anyone doubts it, ask Bruce Cox, or Mrs. Williams. We also might refer to the people who had entrusted money to W. A. Woodrow.
They will admit the truth of what we say.

NO POPS NEED APPLY.

Last Tuesday Fay Smith and B.
Eisminger were calling on the boys who work at the salt works, in this city. They were kindly received and invited in at all of the salt works until they reached the old packing house plant, which is owned by the Under-woods. Here they were refused admittance on the ground that it was against orders, notwithstanding the fact the concern is open to John Q.

Patten, Fred Palmer, et al. If anyone in this county has received more favors at the hands of the people than the Underwoods have, we are not aware of it, and this stand taken by them only corroborates a general opinion of them, though not publicly expressed, and that is, that they are very shoddy and do not possess the spirit of a true Kansan.

THE COURT HOUSE LEVY.

The sovereign voters of Reno county will next Tuesday decide whether the county needs a new court house or rather, do they desire to tax themselves $60,000 for that purpose. At the bottom of the ticket will be found "for the levy" and "against the levy". Very little has been said, about the matter, in fact, probably less than 10 per cent of the voters know that such a proposition is before them.

Here, in full, are the 1st 2nd and 3rd sections of the law as passed:

SEC. 1. The county commissioners of Reno county are hereby authorized to levy a tax for the purpose of building equipping a court house at the time of levying the annual tax, which special levy shall be made each year thereafter till the required sum shall be raised: Provided, That no levy shall be made till the question shall first be submitted to a vote of the people of the said county.

SEC. 2. The county commissioners may call an election at any time for the purpose of obtaining authority to make a special tax levy as provided in section one, said election to be called by an order of said board of commissioners and a proclamation shall be made by the sheriff and published the same as under the general election law for the election of officers. Thirty days' notice of such election shall be given by such proclamation, and the order of the board of commissioners and the proclamation shall state the per cent. of the levy to be made each year: Provided, That in no case shall more than three mill on the dollar be levied in any one year: And provided further, That not more than sixty thousand dollars shall be collected under this act.

SEC. 3. No contract shall be entered into for the erection of a court house until fifty per centum of the sum provided to be raised shall be collected
